K. Medical or Special Needs. Any accommodation for a medical or special need requires that a medical authority provides a written certification of the medical condition or special need. An AO should also consider physical characteristics when determining the class of travel and the options for accommodating those special needs. Consider other travel options such as reserving Economy Plus, Coach Elite Seating, or bulkhead seating that provide extra leg room or purchase two coach seats before recommending premium class travel. If the traveler requires an attendant or escort, see Table 2-4, for criteria to authorize or approve premium-class airfare for the attendant. Authority to use upgraded accommodations is limited to the disabled or special needs traveler and their attendant, and does not permit the rest of the family to travel on a class of service other than economy or coach. A medical authority must recertify the traveler’s medical condition or special need in writing:
