I. Civilian Employees and Dependents

- 1. Q: If I am performing a permanent change of station and am ordered into isolation or quarantine by a public health, medical, or DoD official at a port of entry before proceeding to my new permanent duty station, what allowances am I authorized?

A: You may be authorized per diem (lodging, meals, and incidental expenses) while awaiting transportation unless lodging in kind and meals in kind are provided to you. Follow the guidance in the Secretary of Defense’s “Transition to Conditions-based Phased Approach to Coronavirus Disease 2019 Personnel Movement and Travel Restrictions” signed May 22, 2020, which states authorized travelers who departed their permanent duty station and are “awaiting transportation” are exempt from travel restrictions and are authorized to continue travel to their final destination.

- 2. Q: If I am performing a permanent change of station and am ordered into isolation or quarantine at my new permanent duty station, what allowances am I authorized?

A: You are not authorized any additional PCS allowances.

- 3. Q: If I am performing a permanent change of station and am ordered to temporarily return to my old permanent duty station, what allowances am I authorized?

A: You may be authorized per diem (lodging, meals, and incidental expenses) while awaiting transportation. You should contact your new duty station to determine whether you are considered to be awaiting transportation, or if they are going to provide you temporary duty orders to your old permanent duty station. Dependent travelers may receive per diem if they are in an awaiting transportation status.

Follow the guidance in the Secretary of Defense’s “Transition to Conditions-based Phased Approach to Coronavirus Disease 2019 Personnel Movement and Travel Restrictions” signed May 22, 2020, which states authorized travelers who departed their permanent duty station and are “awaiting transportation” are exempt from travel restrictions and are authorized to continue travel to their final destination.

- 4. Q: If I am performing a permanent change of station and am ordered to permanently return to my old permanent duty station or my orders are amended to name a different permanent duty station, what allowances am I authorized?

A: You are authorized permanent change of station allowances (lodging, meals, and incidental expenses) and transportation in accordance with JTR Sections 0538 and 0539.

- 5. Q: If I am performing a permanent change of station and am ordered to remain at a port of departure until transportation is available, what allowances am I authorized?

A: You may be authorized per diem (lodging, meals, and incidental expenses) while awaiting transportation in accordance with JTR Section 0539.

Follow the guidance in the Secretary of Defense’s “Transition to Conditions-based Phased Approach to Coronavirus Disease 2019 Personnel Movement and Travel Restrictions” signed May 22, 2020, which states authorized travelers who departed their permanent duty station and are “awaiting transportation” are exempt from travel restrictions and are authorized to continue travel to their final destination.

- 6. Q: If I am performing a permanent change of station and am ordered to travel to an alternate location until transportation is available, what allowances am I authorized?

A: You may be authorized per diem (lodging, meals, and incidental expenses) while awaiting transportation. You should contact your new duty station to determine whether you are considered to be awaiting transportation, or if they are going to provide you temporary duty orders. Dependent travelers may only receive per diem if they are in an awaiting transportation status

Follow the guidance in the Secretary of Defense’s “Transition to Conditions-based Phased Approach to Coronavirus Disease 2019 Personnel Movement and Travel Restrictions” signed May 22, 2020, which states authorized travelers who departed their permanent duty station and are “awaiting transportation” are exempt from travel restrictions and are authorized to continue travel to their final destination.

- 7. Q: Am I exempt from travel restrictions if I received temporary quarters subsistence expense (TQSE), my household goods have been picked up, and I have permanently moved out of my residence?

A: Yes, you may be exempt under the Secretary of Defense’s “Transition to Conditions-based Phased Approach to Coronavirus Disease 2019 Personnel Movement and Travel Restrictions” signed May 22, 2020, subsection d, which states, “d. Travel by authorized travelers who departed their permanent duty station and are ‘awaiting transportation,’ and by authorized travelers who have already initiated travel (including intermediate stops). Such travelers are authorized to continue travel to their final destination on approved orders.”

- 8. Q: If I have permanent change of station orders and I have already departed or detached from my old permanent duty station, can my dependents receive safe haven allowances?

A: No, safe haven allowances would not apply in this situation unless your new permanent duty station is in a country where the Secretary of State has Authorized or Ordered Departure and will not allow departed employees or eligible family members to return and Stop Forward Movement has been ordered by the Department of Defense. However you may be authorized per diem (lodging, meals, and incidental expenses) while awaiting transportation. You should contact your new duty station to determine whether you are considered to be awaiting transportation, or if they are going to provide you Temporary Duty Travel Orders. Dependent travelers may only receive per diem if they are in an awaiting transportation status.

Follow the guidance in the Secretary of Defense's "Transition to Conditions-based Phased Approach to Coronavirus Disease 2019 Personnel Movement and Travel Restrictions" signed May 22, 2020, which states authorized travelers who departed their permanent duty station and are "awaiting transportation" are exempt from travel restrictions and are authorized to continue travel to their final destination.

- 9. Q: If I am pending retirement or separation in the CONUS or OCONUS during the stop movement period, am I exempt from travel restrictions in the Secretary of Defense's "Transition to Conditions-based Phased Approach to Coronavirus Disease 2019 Personnel Movement and Travel Restrictions" signed May 22, 2020?

A: Yes, you are exempt and you may coordinate with your component to finalize your PCS.

- 10. Q: If my employment is terminated OCONUS during the stop movement period, am I exempt from travel restrictions in the Secretary of Defense's "Transition to Conditions-based Phased Approach to Coronavirus Disease 2019 Personnel Movement and Travel Restrictions" signed May 22, 2020 and may my component or command send me back to the United States?

A: Yes, you are exempt. Your component or command may arrange to send you back to the United States.

- 11. Q: If I am diagnosed with a "quarantinable communicable disease" at a temporary duty location, and am ordered into isolation or quarantine by a public health or medical official at the temporary duty location, what allowances am I authorized?

A: Your TDY orders could be extended to cover the time you are in isolation or quarantine. If you are in a sick leave status, you may be authorized per diem (lodging, meals and incidental expenses) for up to 14 days. Per diem may be extended if authorized by the Service or DoD Component in accordance with JTR par. 033002-B. If lodging in kind and meals in kind are provided, then you may not be authorized per diem.

- 12. Q: If I am returning from temporary duty travel including return from deployment and am ordered into isolation or quarantine by a public health or medical official at a port of entry before proceeding to the permanent duty station, what allowances am I authorized?

A: You may be authorized standard travel and transportation allowances in accordance with JTR Chapter 2 while awaiting transportation. Your temporary duty travel orders could be amended to extend the temporary duty assignment.

Follow the guidance in the Secretary of Defense's "Transition to Conditions-based Phased Approach to Coronavirus Disease 2019 Personnel Movement and Travel Restrictions" signed May 22, 2020, which states authorized travelers who are returning from TDY are authorized to continue travel to their PDS.

13. Q: If I am returning from temporary duty travel including return from deployment and am ordered into isolation or quarantine at a permanent duty station, what allowances am I authorized?

A: You are not authorized travel and transportation allowances.

14. Q: If I am returning from personal leave to my permanent duty station and transportation is not available or I am ordered not to return to my permanent duty station, what allowances am I authorized?

A: You are not authorized travel and transportation allowances. However, if you are placed on a temporary duty travel order before returning to your permanent duty station, then you may receive standard travel and transportation allowances in accordance with JTR Chapter 2. For example, if a civilian employee's permanent duty station is in Italy, they took personal leave in Germany before the Global Stop Movement and is unable to return to Italy, then the DoD component may authorize the employee to perform temporary duty from Germany.

15. Q: If my dependent is a student receiving transportation to or from school, and is ordered into isolation or quarantine at a port of entry by a public health, medical, or DoD official before proceeding to the permanent duty station or school, what allowances am I authorized?

A: You are not authorized travel and transportation allowances for your dependent student.

16. Q: If my dependent is a student and is ordered into isolation or quarantine at the permanent duty station or school, what allowances am I authorized?

A: You are not authorized travel and transportation allowances for your dependent student.

17. Q: If my dependent is a student, their school has closed and they cannot return home because of the Secretary of Defense's stop movement order, what allowances am I authorized?

A: You may be authorized allowances in accordance with JTR, par. 053806 and Department of State Standardized Regulations \(DSSR\) § 280 for your dependent student while awaiting transportation. Please refer to Department of State (DoS) guidance.

18. Q: If my dependent is a student that cannot return home because my permanent duty station is in a country where the Secretary of State has Authorized or Ordered Departure and will not allow departed employees or eligible family members to return and Stop Forward Movement has been ordered by the Department of Defense, what allowances may be authorized for my dependent?

A: Your dependent student may be authorized safe haven allowances in accordance with JTR, Section 0604.

19. Q: If my dependent is in the United States for medical travel and cannot return home because my permanent duty station is in a country where the Secretary of Station has Authorized or Ordered Departure and will not allow departed employees or eligible family members to return and Stop Forward Movement has been issued by the Department of Defense, what allowances may be authorized for my dependent?

A: You may be authorized safe haven allowances for your dependent in accordance with JTR, Section 0604.

20. Q: If I am a civilian employee and ordered into isolation or quarantine at the permanent duty station, what allowances am I authorized?

A: You are not authorized travel and transportation allowances.

21. Q: If my dependent is ordered into isolation or quarantine at the permanent duty station, what allowances am I authorized?

A: You are not authorized travel and transportation allowances for your dependent.

22. Q: If I am a civilian employee, returning from Government-funded leave and ordered into isolation or quarantine by a public health, medical, or DoD official at a port of entry before proceeding to the permanent duty station, what allowances am I authorized?

A: You are not authorized travel and transportation allowances. However, if you are placed on a temporary duty travel order before returning to your permanent duty station, then you may receive standard travel and transportation allowances in accordance with JTR Chapter 2. For example, if a civilian employee's permanent duty station is in Italy, they took Government-funded leave in Germany before the Global Stop Movement and is unable to return to Italy, then the DoD component may authorize the employee to perform temporary duty from Germany.

23. Q: If my dependent is returning from Government-funded leave and ordered into isolation or quarantine by a public health, medical, or DoD official at a port of entry before proceeding to the permanent duty station, what allowances am I authorized?

A: You are not authorized travel and transportation allowances for your dependent.

24. Q: If I am on Government funded leave and I cannot return home because of the Secretary of Defense's stop movement order, what allowances am I authorized?

A: You are authorized safe haven allowances only when your permanent duty station is in a location where the Secretary of State has Authorized or Ordered Departure and will not allow departed employees or eligible family members to return and Stop Forward Movement has been ordered by the Department of Defense. However, if you are not eligible for safe haven allowances, you may be placed on a temporary duty travel order away from your permanent duty station, and may receive standard travel and transportation allowances in accordance with JTR Chapter 2.

25. Q: Are there exceptions to the Fly America Act prohibition against flying on a foreign flag carrier?

A: Yes, a civilian employee or their dependent may fly on a foreign flag carrier if there is no U.S. flag carrier available. The travel management company and AO must provide documentation to support use of a foreign flag carrier as required by JTR, par. 020206-I and applicable Service regulations.

26. Q: Are there situations when DoD travelers may fly under an Open Skies Agreement?

A: Yes, the restriction on Open Skies Agreement travel only applies to travel funded by DoD. If you are a DoD traveler, but your travel is funded by a non-DoD agency, such as Department of State, then you may be eligible to use an Open Skies Agreement.

27. Q: Is using a foreign air carrier considered a matter of necessity if the only available U.S. flag carrier connects at an airport in a DoD travel restricted location?

A: Your agency can determine that use of a foreign air carrier is a matter of necessity to protect the traveler's safety.

28. Q: If I have an underlying health condition, may I or my eligible family members travel to a safe haven and receive evacuation allowances?

A: Yes, the Global Authorized Departure memorandum, signed March 15, 2020 allows travelers with underlying health conditions to travel to a safe haven or authorized alternate location and receive evacuation allowances.
