053609.  POV Transportation

Transportation allowances for shipping a POV are discretionary. POV transportation may be authorized or approved by the commanding officer (CONUS) or the overseas command (OCONUS). A maximum of two POVs may be shipped at Government expense between CONUS locations. Only one POV may be shipped between CONUS and OCONUS locations or between OCONUS locations. POV storage is not authorized in connection with a Civilian employee’s PCS. A civilian employee assigned to a temporary change of station (TCS) for an operational deployment or contingency operation is eligible for POV storage as specified in JTR, par. 032905. A civilian employee is eligible for POV storage in connection with an OCONUS evacuation as specified in JTR, par. 060405.

Transportation allowances for shipping a POV are discretionary. The commanding officer may authorize or approve a POV transportation allowance for a civilian employee in the CONUS. The overseas command may authorize or approve a POV transportation allowance for a civilian employee OCONUS. A maximum of two POVs may be shipped at Government expense from one location in the CONUS to another in the CONUS. Only one POV may be shipped between a location in the CONUS and a location OCONUS or between locations OCONUS. When POVs are prohibited at the new PDS location, only one POV may be stored at Government expense. A civilian employee assigned to a temporary change of station (TCS) for an operational deployment or contingency operation is eligible for POV storage. See par. 032905 for eligibility requirements. No allowance is authorized for POV storage in connection with a civilian employee’s PCS.
