C6200, section 4, question 4:

*4. Q: What benefits are available for dependents going to an authorized alternate safe haven?

*A: If the "official" safe haven is the fifty United States ~~or~~ the District of Columbia, then anywhere outside the 50 United States and the District of Columbia is an "alternate" safe haven. Evacuation benefits are available only if the Secretary of State and the AGENCY head/designee authorizes the alternate safe haven as being in the GOV'T's best interest (DSSR, Sec 614c). Within DoD, PDUSD (P&R) may authorize an alternate safe haven (phone (703) 697-2086 or DSN (312) 227-2086). The employee cannot simply choose an alternate safe haven. The employee must travel to the official safe haven (DSSR, Sec 631a(1)). The only benefits at an authorized alternate safe haven are: (1) constructed cost travel (NTE travel and transportation costs between the evacuated PDS and the employee's official safe haven location) if the dependent(s) want to join the employee at the employee's official safe haven location; and (2) limited SEA based on the lowest per diem rate of the official safe haven, authorized alternate safe haven, or sStandard CONUS ~~per diem rates~~ ~~– $116-123 as of 10-1-0910~~. The lowest is usually the sStandard CONUS rate. Education allowance is limited to Internet costs between the PDS school and the alternate safe haven (DSSR, Secs 621.1d and 621.2d). Diplomatic immunities, privileges, or services are not available at the alternate safe haven.
